THE OUTLOOK GOOD

For the Coming Crops, Especially

Cleveland Badges.

The writer took a stroll through a portion of Fleming county Friday noting the prospect for coming crops.

The outlook for corn, wheat, rye and oats are very flattering in my native county.

I cannot refrain from referring to one or two other crops which seemed very prolific namely, Cleveland Badges and the beautiful profile of the Hon. Rolla Hart, whose aspirations are for Congressional honors.

Cleveland Badges are nothing new to the writer, as he wore them forty years ago in Fleming.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION

Pursuant to call, the Republican Congressional Committee of the Ninth District met at the Central Hotel at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Chairman Ed. Dunn of Brookville called the meeting to order and announced his purpose—that of fixing a place and time for holding the Convention to nominate a Republican candidate for Congress from the Ninth District.

Thomas A. Davis was made Secretary. A call of counties showed the following represented and by whom:

Augusta—Flemingburg, Ashland and Carlisle were placed in nomination for the Convention, when Augusta was chosen by a final vote of 6 to 4 in favor of Carlisle.

The choice of Augusta was then made unanimous.

Tuesday, June 12th, at 1 p. m. was fixed as the date for holding the Congressional Convention.

Saturday, June 9th, was fixed as the day for holding the County Conventions, the several counties to adopt their own method of choosing delegates, and to fix the hour.

GOOD WORK.

THE LEDGER is a warm friend to Home Missions.

It was gratifying, therefore, when its scribe dropped into the German Church, Second street near Short, yesterday afternoon and there saw more than a hundred persons gathered to spend an hour in thankfulness to the Lord.

The Sunday school was but recently organized by members of the First Presbyterian Church, and its influence for good is already manifest.

Robert A. Cochran, Jr., is Superintendent, and among the teachers are some of the most prominent Sunday-school workers in the city, male and female.

The singing was excellent and it was a revelation to the writer to witness the interest and the vim which characterized the proceedings.

After coming out of the church the scribe met a gentleman who has lived nearly opposite the premises for more than half a century, and he said: "If anybody had told me three months ago that I would ever hear such singing in this church as I have heard this afternoon, I would not have believed it."

Thank the Lord, more a one Missionary enterprise on a successful basis in Maysville.

BADLY HURT.

Pearce, Mills Injured By a Street Car Saturday Night.

Pearce Mills, Turner of the Maysville Manufacturing Company, took a turn at the dog show Saturday night.

It was late when the curtain fell, and among many others Mr. Mills took passage on the owl car for home at 10:04 East Second.

Before he knew it the car had passed his home some distance, and he got off to wait for a Westbound owl that was due about 12 o'clock from the bean fry at Dieterich's Park.

Being tired he sat down on the end of a crossie to rest, and it was not many moments before he was asleep.

Along came the other, laden with passengers, and with Motorcar Dressel at the throttle the car was sitting along smoothly, and all went joyously until the vestibule struck Mr. Mills.

He received a considerable cut on the right temple, a bruise on the left side of the head, and his right arm, which had been caught under the guard, was severely torn and bruised about the elbow. No bones were broken. Mr. Mills was taken home and Dr. Pangborn dressed his injuries. He will be laid up for some days.

This is Mr. Mills's statement, made to THE LEDGER, and he is free to say that no blame attaches to any one but himself.

Attempted Escape.

Jailer Kirk had his suspicions early this morning that something was out of the ordinary among his guests in the "State Department" of the County Jail. An investigation disclosed the fact that one of the bars had been sawed completely in two and another partly severed. Just how it was done is as yet undiscovered, however.

In this section of the jail are kept several notable criminals, William Logan, Milo Allenworth for grand larceny, and Edward Jones for horse stealing.

And Echo Answers Why.

Would Madeline Pollard, if she would visit Kentucky, be given the same ship of a joyous demonstration that is being accorded Col. Breckinridge? We think not. Why shouldn't there be but one standard of virtue for men and women? But the women are largely to blame that this is not the case. When a woman falls she is ostracized by both men and women, but how different when a man falls. He is accepted into society, the same as the parent man or woman, and nothing is thought of his sin. It should not be. If men will not ostracize their fellow man for his sin, women should. In this way they can bring back the old standard of virtue for both. We are glad to see the noble women of Kentucky protesting against Col. Breckinridge again being honored by the state.
